

South Carolina State Transport Police Residency Requirements

The South Carolina State Transport Police residency requirements requires officers to reside within the region which they are assigned when offered employment, unless otherwise advised by the divisions Deputy Director. If applicants indicate they are not willing to accept employment anywhere in the state, they can list any of the 6 Regions (or the counties within those districts) in which they are willing to reside.

